Personally Opposed - Decries "Ragtag Tactics Disgracing Name of Womanhood."

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Baltimore, April 21.—Cardinal Gibbons said to-day that Miss Inez Milholland was in error in a recent utterance when she asserted that the Catholic Church was opposed to women voting. "The mission of the Church is to define faith and morals," said the Cardinal. "In other matters individuals must decide for them-

Cardinal Gibbons said he personally was opposed to woman suffrage because he was "in favor of perpetuating the real dignity of woman." A Western prelate whom Miss Milholland had quoted as authority for saying the Church opposed equal suffrage was himself speaking as an individual, the Cardinal surmised.

In view of the hearing before the Sen ate committee on the pros and cons of equal suffrage Cardinal Gibbons expressed his own views at some length.
